

Strategic Plan 2015 - 2017

Mining & Quarrying
OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH &
SAFETY COMMITTEE

Key Strategies

Communication & Engagement

Prevention of harm

Education and Training

Research and Evaluation

Our Goal

To assist SA Mines and Quarries achieve Zero Harm.

Our Vision

South Australian Mines and Quarries are healthy and safe workplaces.

Our Purpose

To effectively deliver Work Health & Safety initiatives to mines and quarries through industry engagement.

Our Values

- > Service
- > Professionalism
- > Trust
- > Respect
- > Collaboration
- > Consultation
- > Engagement
- > Honesty
- > Integrity
- > Courage
- > Tenacity
- > Sustainability

What success looks like

Key Stakeholders regard MAQOHSC as the leading WHS resource within the industry.

WHS field services, guidelines and tools provided by MAQOHSC are implemented within industry.

The Industry utilises the WHS educational tools, training, coaching and mentoring provided by MAQOHSC.

Relevant, practical research forms the basis for WHS Services, and our services are evaluated and continuously improved.

Our Actions

- Website
- Customer Needs Analysis
- Customer Feedback Surveys
- Strategic Partnerships
- Newsletter
- Annual Report
- Seminars, forums, conferences
- Social Media

Proactive consultation, communication and engagement for emerging WHS issues and worker safety.
Work collaboratively to promote wellbeing and influence workplaces in the reduction of workplace injury, illness (in particular silicosis) and death.
Provide consistent and accurate advice that is relevant to each individual workplace.

Work in partnership to raise awareness and create behavioural change in industry.
Provide targeted relevant resources to promote health and safety capability and educate industry how to keep workers healthy and safe at work.

Measure our services and be accountable for our performance.
Commit to service excellence for all of our stakeholders.
Provide research grants and deliver outcomes relevant to injury, and illness reduction.

Our Measures

Positive Feedback from customer surveys.

A reduction of 5% per year.

Achieve KPI's.

Value for money research outcomes with dissemination for implementation in industry.